

Bicycle - Supreme Line Cheek to Cheek

The magician randomly shuffles a deck with some cards face up and some cards face down. He has one or more cards selected from the face up ones. After the chosen cards have been put back in the deck, he once again shuffles it. When the cards are spread on the table (or fanned), magically the entire deck will have turned face down, and the only to face up cards will be the spectator's selections!

With this deck you can do also other amazing effects, which you will find in the attached instructions.
