

EDCeipt by Craig Petty - UK VERSION

"Craig has been making waves in the community recently for very good reasons. He is creating masterpiece after masterpiece. EDCeipt is no different; it's incredible!"

- Peter Turner

30 ITEMS

5 RECIEPTS.

YOU ALWAYS KNOW.

EDCeipt is the DEFINITION of packs small plays BIG.

EDCeipt is a definitive masterwork exploration of the Calculator Card Principal.

This is EXACTLY what happens. The spectator thinks of any item from a couple of receipts that you keep in your wallet and with no fishing or memory work, you know exactly what item they're thinking of.

It's that clean, it's that direct, and it's that powerful.

Based on a classic but criminally underused principle; the method behind EDCeipt allows your participant to freely think of any of the 30 items spread over 5 receipts and you INSTANTLY know what they're thinking of.

The receipts have been designed to look identical to real receipts from real stores. With UK and US versions available, we've made them from Tyvek. Which means that they FEEL like receipt's but can't be torn and will last for years and years!

Keep these in your wallet and have the ability to perform an effect that gets wild reactions, anywhere, anytime.

But EDCeipt isn't just a one-and-done trick... it's JUST the very tip of the iceberg. Craig has teamed up with a team of magic and mentalism's most brilliant minds to deep-dive, explore and push the boundaries of tricks and ideas that you'd never before imagine possible from just 5 seemingly innocent receipts combined with an age old principal.

Tricks, routines, ideas and concepts from:

- Michael Murray
- Peter Nardi
- Simon Lipkin
- Lloyd Barnes
- Javier Fuenmayor
- Mark Lemon
- And a 2 hour special with Peter Turner.

From chair tests, to liar/truth teller, crazy visual reveals, social media routines, how to perform on over zoom and so, so much more!

With 6 hours of detailed instructions and real-world live performances, Craig Petty and friends leave no stone left unturned.

EDCeipt strikes the balance between BEGINNER level difficulty with EXPERT level reactions.

- Easy to do
- Tyvek receipts last a lifetime
- UK or USA available
- Perfect Every Day Carry
- No memory work
- No fishing

Every Day Carry magic and mentalism really doesn't get any better than this.

"Craig has done it again. A magnificent multi layered routine with the perfect blend of method and mystery culminating in an impossible reveal as astonishing close-up and it would be on stage."

- Matthew Wright

"I've been spending my whole life making my magic organic and Edceipt is just PERFECT. This goes straight into my wallet!"

- Henry Harrius

"EDCeipt will find its way to wallets of magicians worldwide. It is organic and it looks at an old principle from a fresh perspective."

- Perseus Arkomanis

"An original application of a great method. Brilliant thinking Craig."

- Christian Grace

"Craig has created something special with EDCeipt! He has taken an old and underused principle in magic, and not only modernized it, but made it look like true mind reading."

- Kyle Purnell

"Craig's new effect EDCeipt fuses a classic methodology, organic natural props and the legendary Petty routining to create a hard hitting close up piece of mind-reading magic. I love this kind of conversational, off the cuff mentalism, I like tricks with an easily understood hook, logical props and a complete presentation - and EDCeipt delivers. Tuck it in your wallet, and you're all set to blow some brains."

- Phill Smith

"With EDCeipt; Craig has taken a tried and tested concept to new heights with the introduction of logical and flat-pack props, alongside lashings of clever and funny moments to drive audiences away from the possibility that any method aside from real mind reading could be at play!"

- Dee Christopher

"Craig has reworked and polished a classic effect into something that is not only practical to carry, but finally makes complete logical sense. I can't wait to start using this."

- Michael Murray
