

An Zauberseil schwebende Weinflasche - Weinflaschenhalter

Here is a great little illusion of a bottle magically suspended from a piece of rope. It is a bottle holder to be used as a magical piece of furniture, or on the dining table of any magic enthusiast.

We are sure that this nice illusion will not fail to attract everyone's attention, becoming a fascinating topic of conversation.

It will also be a perfect introduction if you want to later show your friends some of your tricks.

- The bottle is not included, but you can use your own.
