Leisure by Paul Carnazzo

With Leisure, you'll be able to miraculously read the minds of up to three spectators!

Your spectators select words from a list of twenty-four different words and form an image in their minds related to their selection. With no questions, you are able to describe their thought of image with amazing detail!

Leisure is very direct and requires no fishing. The routine is flexible and can be used for one to three people, and allows you to reveal details about their thought of images as well as the exact thought of words!

- No fishing
- No anagrams
- No questions
- No math

If you liked Lexicology, you'll love Leisure!
