Chamber of Secrets by Matthew Wright - Pokerdeck

This beautifully designed steampunk themed deck of copper foil embossed cards is inspired by the magic theatre "Chamber of Secrets" run by World Championships of Magic Award Winner Matthew Wright.

The tuck box is finished in a black gloss with copper foil embossed cogs and wheels as well as copper foil logo.

Inside, each card is also embossed on the back with copper foil which glows and shines when catching the light.

The front of the cards are printed on Jet black high quality card stock the reds that visually POP straight off the card. The black pip cards and copper/brass in color for a unique never seen before design.

Each Ace card has been individually designed with the steampunk theme in mind and the Jokers show Chamber of secrets founders Matthew and Alarna.

Also included in the 56 cards are two "gaff cards" which can be used for various magic tricks. A separate download is also available for those wishing to learn some simple self working beginner card tricks.

This is a limited edition deck of cards and is expected to sell out quickly.
