
X Light by Kingsley Xu

Swing the radiant magic wand, and a delicate feather gracefully appears. Experience the enchantment of X Light, where innovation and wonder unite to craft captivating stage magic.

Picture this: You hold a magic wand and elegantly sweep it through the air, conjuring a soft glow. As the light emerges, a feather materializes within its radiance, hanging suspended in mid-air.

The audience witnesses the feather slowly materializing within the gentle glow. The entire effect resembles a meticulously created video montage, offering your audience a unique and enchanting magical experience in real life.

Moreover, you can seamlessly integrate X Light into numerous stage routines, whether they involve vanishing feathers, disappearing silk scarves, or even color-changing silk scarves.

Key Features

- Elevated craftsmanship for stage magic
- Contains fundamental techniques, structured sequences, and professional routines.
- Effortless operation with a powerful impact
- Set up in just 38 seconds
- Adaptable for various performance settings: small theaters, stage acts, or short video recordings

What's Included

- A sturdy and durable 3D-printed magic wand
- A white feather
- Multiple petite feathers
- A high-quality puller mechanism
- A white silk

Note: This product enables you to perform the Magic Wand Lumination and the production/vanish/transformation of feather/silk effects. Some effects shown in the trailer involve integrating this product with other common stage effects like the Appearing Wand or smoke production. The required gimmicks for these additional effects, such as a smoke machine, are NOT included with this product.