"This Long Pour Gimmick is UNDENIABLY PERFECT. And I'M NOT KIDDING."
- Steve Spill

"For me, the real gold on the set was Michael sitting and discussing the development of the routines. The "how's" and "why's" of how it all comes together. I watched those segments a number of times."

- Harry Murphy

"I would recommend it highly to anyone who is thinking about getting in front of people and really working. It is not often you get a real pro to sit down and spill a life times worth of work on video."

- Danny Hustle

"His thoughts on magic and theatre are priceless."

- Andrew Gerard

"One of the most knowledgeable magicians, who was also a booker of entertainment for many many years."

- Bill Abbott
