Players' Elites Marked Deck - Pokerdeck - Markiertes Kartenspiel

Produced by a magician for magicians.

The Players' Elite playing cards are 300gsm premium stock with a smooth butter finish.

They handle and feel like top quality cards, Players' Elites are already becoming the go to cards for top magicians and card workers. These cards hold extra secrets, one of which is a unique one way design, once you know the secret you can spot it from across the table. The second is a devious marking system, whether you are left handed or right handed you can see the marks as they are on all 4 corners.

Also included is a blank face card and a double backed card, these playing cards are designed by professional magician Andrew Dean. They are poker sized with a butter finish to give them a feel that matches the top quality cards out there.
