
Chop Egg by Jeki Yoo

Hi, I'm excited to introduce my new magic item: Chop Egg!

This is my take on the classic Chop Cup routine by Al Wheatley.

The Chop Cup has been one of my favorite routines to perform in my live shows for a long time.

However, I always wanted to create my own Chop Cup routine and desired a new climax.

That's how the Chop Egg was born.

At the end of this routine, a small chicken magically appears.

But it doesn't end there; the egg-shaped cup transforms into a real egg.

The moment it changes into a real egg, the audience will go wild with unexpected results.

Chop Egg has already received a lot of love in my performances and on social media. I believe your audience will love it too.

- Great for live shows and social media, TV shows
- Kicker ending!
- Everything included (except the real egg)

What's included?

- Egg-shaped cup x1
- Egg stand x1
- Balls x2 (1 normal ball, 1 gimmick ball)
- Miniature chicken x1
- Special holder x1
- Tutorial video with Jeki Yoo

Note: You should provide the real egg by yourself.

Credits for the gimmick:

Al Wheatley (Chop Cup)

Harold Rice and Fred Haenchen (Silk to Egg)

Warning: This is not a toy. Be careful of SHARP EDGES and MAGNETS. Not for children. Keep away from electric devices.
