
Pocket Devil Set (Doug Henning)

COLLECT ONE, OR COLLECT THEM ALL!

DOUG HENNING - "The Magic Show"

"Pocket Devils" are an exciting new range of collectable pocket square handkerchiefs inspired by the art of magic posters from "The Golden Age", celebrating legendary magicians who have stimulated generations of contemporary performers through their innovations, inventions and influences, digitally interpreted by Lee Alex, each "Pocket Devil" has its own history and story to relate ...

Inspired by the 1974 Broadway "The Magic Show" poster by David Byrd, this "Pocket Devil" features digital patterns from the original poster in bright colors associated with Henning throughout his magical career. The center piece is the cartoon heart - one presumes that audiences loved the show as it ran for 1,920 performances at the Cort Theater, Manhattan from May 28th 1974 with a final performance on New Year's Eve 1978.

A set of "Pocket Devils" contains ONE regular pocket square and ONE pocket square with built in "Devil's Hank" feature. Each design is strictly limited to 99 pieces worldwide.

"Pocket Devils" measure 34 cm x 34 cm (approx. 13 inches x 13 inches). Each "Pocket Devil" set" comes with a collectors information card giving a brief description of the original poster and artwork design. Collector cards are individually hand numbered. (One numbered card per set of two "Pocket Devils").

"Pocket Devils" can be used in performance like a normal Devil's Handkerchief (sewn with studs to locate the pocket easily). The regular pocket square can be worn in a jacket breast pocket, or framed as a decorative piece for your magic club meeting room or den.

"You are creating super elegant magic that will become timeless collectors items. Your creations are more than just great magic accessories... They are beautiful pieces of fashion accessory"

- Jeff McBride, Las Vegas Headliner
