Traditional, refined, and palatable...

Dram is designed to be our most playable deck yet. We've listened to feedback from dozens of regular customers from serious collectors to passionate players of home games from all over Europe and the US.

We set ourselves the following goals - large, readable pips and indices, strong contrasting colors between suits, traditionally inspired courts but fully-modernized and unique to the series all kept within a theme inspired by the colors and branding of Scotch whisky and the whole heritage that whisky production in Scotland proudly boasts.
