Dance of the elements infinity tuck box. Create the picture of the sensual, erotic dance of the elements by placing 5 decks in a row. Theoretically, however, an infinite number of decks can be placed next to each other, and the design continues seamlessly.

The Elements Playing Cards combine the 4 traditional card suits with the 4 elements - earth, fire, water and air. Each face card is also associated with an animal, further enhancing the connection to their respective elements. This special combination adds a symbolic depth and creates a truly distinctive playing experience.
