
Smoke & Mirrors x Fulton (Smoke-White) by Dan & Dave - Pokerdeck

To commemorate the fifteenth anniversary release of Smoke & Mirrors playing cards we worked with our longtime friend and collaborator Brad Fulton to design an all-new edition inspired by 19th-century typography - an homage to the original Smoke & Mirrors design featuring intricate details in black and white for a sophisticated look.

The cards feature our trademark D&D monogram in a new typeset surrounded by a mosaic pattern on the backs along with a custom Ace of Spades, Jokers, and suits for the number cards. Printed by the U.S. Playing Cards Co. on our trademark thin stock using classic Arrco-style court cards.

Packaged inside a letterpress-printed tuck box sealed with a stamp. Available in Smoke (white) and Mirrors (black).
