
Bicycle Outlaw by Collectable - Pokerdeck

The rogue outlaw lives by his own rules. No one tells him what to do. He never had any real friends, his family wants nothing to do with him, and he's OK with that. He learned about life at the school of hard knocks. He knows how to manipulate his way through the days.

This rough and tumble deck will complement your black leather as you sit at the honky tonk bar looking for a hustle, or at the kitchen table playing war with your grandchildren. A superb addition to any collection.
