
Bicycle Haunted House by Collectable - Pokerdeck

Did you feel that? Cold fingers just touched the back of your neck. And what is wrong with the electricity? The lights keep flickering, and there's a barely perceptible hum in the air. When was the last time anyone has lived in this house? Unexplored rooms seem to go on forever, stuck in time.

If you have ever wanted to spend the night in a haunted house, this is the deck for you! Perfect for playing solitaire, bwahahaha.
