Esoteric Kennedy by Stevens Magic Emporium

"David Roth called to order this item often, even though he was an expert manipulator, he understood the power of entertainment."

- Mark Stevens

Can be done right under their noses and eyes! The performer shows an ordinary half dollar and places it on a playing card. Unbelievably, the coin begins to move by itself. It rises up from the card and stands on its edge. It doesn't stop there; the magician gives it a little flick and the coin literally spins (as if it was dancing on top of the card!). Then slowly upon the performers command the coin starts to descend, just as it rose earlier, until it lies on the card flat (to its original position on the card). They won't believe this one! Carry it in your pocket all the time and be ready to blow them away!

Created by Mark Stevens in 1990, with respects to Georges Proust (Paris, France) and Carmello (Italy). Top seller!
