
Autograph Hound by Rian Lehman

The most nostalgic and family friendly prediction you will add to your act. This is a theme park autograph book filled with random signatures, all sourced and hand signed with the official character signatures.

A spectator can randomly say stop at any page, selecting a 'random' character. Then the magician reveals a certificate showing the exact character that was chosen.

Includes two different character force possibilities. (Olaf & Belle)

Hand made from an actual piece of merchandise. Recognizable, relatable, and nostalgic.
