
CONCEALED by Peter Eggink

An ultra quick and ultra easy card to pocket.

Any card is selected and is signed by the spectator. Next, the card is lost back in the pack and with just a tap of your sharpie, the card has magically vanished from within the pack - you explain that the card has gone through an actual portal. With no funny moves or whatsoever your empty hand reaches into your back pocket only to reveal the spectator's signed card!

Yes, it's that straightforward. Watch the full performance video to see how amazing and super clean "Concealed" is.

"Concealed" by Peter Eggink is the stripped down essence of the "Card to Pocket" plot. It's super easy to do and requires no sleight of hand or palming.
