
Perfectionism RED by AB & Star heart Presents

Introducing a unique packet trick that the audience's free choice completes perfection!

The Perfectionism by AB, as the name of perfectionism suggests, is magic that the audience's free choice makes perfection.

Show the audience two packets that are cut in half.

The audience selects one card from each packet.

If you check the cards, the two selections are completely different and do not match each other.

But if you check the prediction card, it's magic with a surprising twist that perfectly matches the audience's free selections.

Everything you need is provided, and you can always carry it around and present it easily and practically.
