
SOLO CUBE by Taiwan Ben

If you are looking to produce one of the cube in a magical way, and it is SOLO CUBE.

You will be able to produce a Rubik's cube from Nothing to 2D to 3D without any cover!

A Magician presents a deck of cards and has the spectator select one card, then shows the chosen card. With a little shake of the playing card, a cube image gradually appears on the playing card, then a real cube falls from it magically. An innovative way to introduce a Rubik's Cube for your next routine.
