DOWN TO ONE (Gimmicks & Instructions) by Jon Allen

"As soon as I saw Down to One I had to get it. It is simple, strong and an easy fit into almost any show. I hate Jon even more for coming up with this!"

- John Archer

"This is not just a great trick (and it is that) but a strong tool that should be in the repertoire of any magicians or mentalist."

- Jon Armstrong

"Jon has taken an impressive effect and expertly crafted it into a practical, clever, audience-engaging miracle! I highly recommend it to anyone "not living in my city!"

- Richard Sanders

"Jon only puts out fantastic products. Down to One is an amazing audience participation part of every show I am doing now."

- Mark Shortland

"I'm thrilled to have added it to my show and I hate that you're selling it to others!"

- Bill Cook

There has never been such a perfect routine for you to engage a whole audience for parlour shows, stage shows, cabaret, after-dinner shows, trade shows and kids' shows

Down to One could well be the Holy Grail of audience participation from a small gathering to a huge audience! This is why professional magicians and mentalists who have performed it once have kept it in their shows.

Using nothing more than a two-colour coin and a prediction, you offer a simple, engaging, entertaining routine. The whole audience stands up and guesses the result of a coin toss. Whoever guesses correctly stays standing and the game is played until you are down to one person left.

Your prediction not only describes this person **exactly** but also their winning guess!

Down to One is a simple 6-8 minute routine where everyone gets involved. While
