Bicycle Rune V2 (Stripper) - Pokerdeck

The sold-out Runes is back by popular demand in a new colorway of silver and red! A completely custom PCD originals deck of playing cards based on the Elder Futhark, the oldest runic alphabet from Germanic & Nordic tribes. You will find a total of 24 runic letters used on the number & court cards.

The runes on the Aces spell out the corresponding suit and the jokers feature a decorative octagram. The main feature of the back design is based on the famous rune circles. A double back & informational card are also included.

Besides using this as a fun unique deck for your next card game, it is also perfect for performing mysterious themed magic tricks and using for cartomancy.

Please note this is a modified version of the Runes decks. A stripper deck is a deck that has been specially cut to be slightly tapered off on one side which allows you to perform various magic tricks. Instructions are not included but various resources can easily be found online.
