
RED PILL BLUE PILL by Pen, Bond Lee & MS Magic

Red pill or blue pill, what is your choice?

An original and unique piece of magic.

The magician displays a bottle of pills, and has a spectator hold on to it. The spectator can freely name any playing card, and choose either the red pill or the blue one. When they open the bottle, the chosen color pill will predict the spectator's card perfectly.

The pill can reveal any message, so it is possible to do multiple routines with these props.

If you are looking for something different, this is for you.

A miracle inside a pill.
