
Magical Calendar by Tenyo Magic

What if your birthdate determined your fate... And what if there were a calendar that could inform you of your future...?!

This magic trick is based on the mysterious theme of fortune telling. During the performance you learn one of your spectator's most personal details-their birthday-which immediately attracts attention and interest. This trick is an excellent tool for communicating with your audience. Since the props fit in your pocket, you will always be ready to entertain.
