
Discord - Pokerdeck

Magic, mentalism & playing card collecting are underground passions.

It's very unlikely that your neighbor will know magic, or collect custom decks too.

That's why we live our lives online. In a frantic search to find like-minded souls... to find our people.

The Discord Deck is a celebration of those common ideas coming together to form an alliance. A community.

The tuck box is a premium matte finish and features curious iconography that only you will fully understand.

As well as gorgeous inside-tuck printing. I mean, c'mon... This would make insane wallpaper.

The back design is unrestrained and free-spirited. A nod to the new wave magicians that are ditching the rabbits and top hats for a more modern take on magic.

The deck itself features fully custom faces, including courts and Aces.

With the Ace of Hearts & the Ace of Diamonds paying homage to the Greek Gods (JT Chalatsis & Perseus Arkomanis) that set up our Ellusionist Discord server

The pips themselves are battle-worn and show depth. Everything in this deck was hand-painted by Oban Jones and only dragged into digitization to be able to print it.

Shhh! For magicians, the deck features one duplicate Queen of Hearts and a handy double-backer for effortless switches and concealments
