
Salted 2.0 by Ruben Vilagrando and Vernet

The greatest "long salt pour" ever!

Have you ever wanted to perform the Long Salt Pour trick? Imagine vanishing the salt and instantly showing both hands empty! Ruben Vilagrando, the last winner of FISM Europe in Invention, has done the impossible: he created a new gimmick that combines all the features of existing gimmicks and much more!

You'll be surprised by Ruben's ingenuity in the design of this new gimmick combines four different principles that make the method completely unfathomable to the audience. You will vanish the salt, instantly show both hands empty, and then reproduce salt for more than a minute.

The "Salted act" has been part of Ruben Vilagrando's professional repertoire for more than 10 years and he will tell you all the secrets and tips!

In the instruction video, you'll see Vilagrando perform and explain his groundbreaking routine. We also include full performance and explanations from top professional Inaki Zabaletta, including a routine without a jacket. You can perform it in a t-shirt! Finally, Javi Benitez will explain to you his steal, it will fool you even if you know the secret!
