
Tsukuyomi Kisodesu - Pokerdeck

Tsukuyomi Playing Cards are the first edition to the Kisodesu Cards family.

The Tsukuyomi deck is printed on premium stock and with Cambric finish and is X-decks first deck of their first brand with many more planned to be launched. These cards were created by Nate Lex (Founder of OPC) and Max Jung and are equipped with custom colors and modified court cards. The court cards are modified with allusions to the shinto religion as well as some of your favorite anime characters, can you guess who they are? This deck also features some reveals and cards that are specifically designed for magic.

This deck takes inspiration from japanese art and includes The Great Wave off Kanagawa and the blood moon which is based on the god Tsukuyomi in the shinto religion.

These decks are from a limited run and will not be re-printed.
