The Pack Smart Play Anywhere Show

Now is your chance to own a complete 35 minute show that packs smart and plays anywhere featuring unreleased effects, routines and secrets!

Lost Footage - Found!

During a rare convention appearance in the United Kingdom a couple years ago four cameras were rolling while Bill delivered what many would later say was the best lecture they had ever attended. That high definition footage was lost and then found - and arrived in an unmarked package at Bill's doorstep in the form of a hard drive.

From Bill Abbott...

"I am completely obsessive when it comes to the Pack Smart Play Anywhere lifestyle. The basic philosophy is rooted in the idea that it's better to fill a stage with personality and entertainment rather than large props and paraphernalia. I will show you, with practical examples, how to stretch and pull every ounce of entertainment out your props, your script and interaction to deliver a show that is high on impact and low on luggage. This lecture could change your opinions, your show and possibly your life."

What is Pack Smart Play Anywhere All About?

James Bond, the character made famous in numerous movies, could take down an evil dictator or insane nuclear scientist or even an army with a few cool gadgets, fast reflexes and quick thinking.
