
GLACIER by Taiwan Ben

Liquid suspension has been a classic in magic for decades. Now it's better than ever.

Glacier is a modern improved version that can be done with borrowed bottle. Glacier is engineered to have none of the drawbacks of all existing versions. Unlike the usual bulky or flimsy gimmicks that can be easily seen by the audience. The improved gimmick can be easily placed and removed up close right in front of spectators' eyes. The reset is immediate. You start clean, you end clean, and everything is examinable.
