
Stardust - Retro Trainers (Red Flake) by Magic Encarta

Cardistry trainers are tools that are specifically made for helping YOU evolve, practice, and create new moves in cardistry. Unlike all the trainers ever done by Magic Encarta, these combine fiberboards, resin, a unique metallic foil and a special liquid that helps bring all these together into an ultra luxurious, high quality stunning piece of art.

A lot goes into the process of STARDUST's including laser cutting, spray polishing, sanding, polishing, fusing of the special foil not only on the surface but as well as around the edges of STARDUST and a lot of love which makes them so unique and breathtaking.

FEATURES:

- Perfect appearance, with shimmering foil look.
- Both sides are designed with a curved screen, great handling and smooth for cardistry.
- The packets do not STICK unlike some other trainers on the market. These separate effortlessly, assisting you with fluid movements and a great handling experience.
- The trainers are washable, so you can directly stuff them into your pocket, backpack, without worrying about them getting dirty, these can even be washed.
- ONE SET contains 5 pieces.
- Each set comes in a custom matching colored jute bag.

PS: Given the complexities of the process, these being handcrafted and take time, only a handful of these are made available in limited quantities.

AVAILABLE IN 5 AMAZING COLORS.
