
Wings Magic Presents: Shape Of My Heart by Silver Wing & Carpenter Wong

Torn & Restored Card is a very classic effect with many different versions in the process of magic development.

However, Shape Of My Heart is definitely a version you have never seen before.

The effect of T&R card expresses that the magician has the ability to restore broken items.

This version not only gives the magician the ability, but also gives the ending of the trick a meaning - LOVE. This unprecedented version takes the effect to a new level.

Magician shows a two of hearts to the audience, rips it from the middle, then staggers the two pieces together.

Two pieces restore into a HEART-SHAPE card after a magic moment, and the pips of hearts are also combined!

While restoring the cards, it also expressed the special meaning of HEART-to-HEART to the audience

This HEART-SHAPE card can be given to the audience as a souvenir, it will become a very deep magical memory in his life.
