Classic Correspondence from Egyptian Hall Museum volume III by Mike Caveney

24 more letters from Mike Caveney's Classic Correspondence series have been collected into a beautiful third volume in this award-winning series. The entire book is printed in full color with added annotations, previously-unseen photographs, posters and other rare memorabilia.

Reading this book is like being taken on a guided tour through the historical files of Egyptian Hall Museum. It is the perfect gift for anyone who loves the art of magic. 411 pages, 6 by 9 inches, fully indexed, with custom-printed end sheets. The largest book in the series but no increase in price.

"What a superb publication! At first glance it appears to be the rare combination of style and substance. In other words, a typical Caveney publication!"

I want to thank you very much for writing "Classic Correspondence from Egyptian Hall Museum". I have enjoyed reading it very much, and truly didn't want it to end. The idea of annotating the letters is brilliant. But it wasn't just the letters themselves that were fascinating; it was your historical background and other supporting details that brought them to life. It is the context and overview you provide that makes this project so valuable. I must also commend you on the design and presentation of the material. The book is a joy to the eye, as well as the mind.
