
Silkeny 2.0 by Inaki Zabaletta

My professional silk routine

After a long time performing "Silkeny," I further refined the routine and created an improved version called "Silkeny 2.0" which is the culmination of many years of work.

A silk handkerchief keeps changing color, as the magician supposedly explains the secret. The magic keeps coming, with a climax that the audience won't see coming!

Includes 2 gimmicks.

- HANDKERCHIEFS AND WAND NOT PROVIDED.
- Printed instructions.
- Video download with performance and step-by-step explanations.
- The perfect opener.
- Ideal for parlor, stage and kids' show.
- A routine full of comedy, interest, strong magic and commercial appeal.
