
Thin Air (DVD and Gimmicks) by EVM - DVD

Are you tired of all the overproduced magic trailers? Meaningless street shots and paid actors with overexaggerated reactions?

We are a group of young magicians who love direct and visual magic. Magic that people can understand and genuinely react to, even if they don't understand your language. And we are tired of what's happening in the magic scene. Our goal is to show visual magic as it is, from start to finish; so that you know exactly how your spectators would see it. No tricks and misleading ads. No crazy reactions. Just the magic.

Watch this trailer for Thin Air. You'll see a card magically float in thin air, and then vanish into thin air!
