
Edible Balloon by Victor Voitko

"When I came up with PGBalloon, the device for the appearance of an inflated balloon from the mouth, firstly it was necessary to eat the inflated balloon. Initially, I thought it would be easy to do. I tried a lot of ways, but I did not like any of them because none worked with 100% stability. So, I invented this gimmick."

- Viktor Voitko

Special gimmick for "eating" inflated balloons.

Classic old effect - NEW gimmick.

This gimmick allows you to swallow a balloon without putting in any effort.

"Eating the balloon" is almost automatic.

Also, you do not have to worry about the "swallowing" speed. It is always the same.

You can pre-inflate and prepare a few balloons in advance and "eat" them during the show.

Specifications:

- The gimmick is reusable
- One balloon requires one gimmick
- It works automatically
- Swallowing speed is always the same
- Easy to use
- Do not need to bite the balloon
- Do not need to chew the balloon
- Can be viewed from all around you

This set includes:

- 1 sample of the prepared balloon
- 9 special gimmicks for normal balloon
- 10 rubber rings
