- Cameron Francis

John Bannon's Move Zero series is undoubtedly the most exciting study of self-working card magic this century. Spread across four packed volumes it features 36 self-working tricks, 23 awesome (and useful) techniques... and nearly TEN HOURS of material!

Do not miss out on this. It is one of the most essential sets of card magic released in decades and is stuffed to the gills with world class routines that require NO sleight of hand!!! That's right - no sleight of hand. None. No moves, no sleights. Yet despite being automatic in method, each and every effect is a staggering, explosive, layered stunner. And contrary to expectation of how powerful sleight free magic can be, these tricks will decimate any audience (be they magicians, lay people, even sometimes yourself).
