Here is a peek into True Astonishments:

Chapter 1:

Twilight Angels: Wayne Houchin performs a beautiful rendition of this classic PH effect. Paul has said repeatedly that this is his all time FAVORITE effect.

Backlash 2: Paul and TA director Bro Gilbert took one of one of the most popular effects from the Art Of Astonishment books tore it apart, rebuilt it from the ground up and pumped up the ending till it explodes.

New Leaf: Another ingenious organic piece of strange from Paul and Bro. This new version of Leaf moves into the spectator's hands and with a simple rub, the torn leaf becomes whole again.

Cheng's Change: This is mind-blowing. Perform Zapped! with normal cards. Five cards visually morph into five different cards right under their noses. Did we mention NO GIMMICKS?

Big Tiny: A spectator's signature on the side of a deck multiplies in their hands. They honest-to-god truly decide which cards go where...and yet the inked deck creates four duplicate signatures!

Chapter 2:

The New Las Vegas Leaper: Ok, this is so brilliant and so simple! Basically, you do the original PH classic with a crazy new finale where a bill appears in a spectator's own pocket.

Tubular: Paul's impromptu miracle where two signed bills impossibly morph into one bill with both signatures... all in the spectator's hands.

Cheng's Riser: The card visually and slowly rises towards the top. Then with barely a wave of the hand it melts right through to the very top. No gimmicks, just a beautiful true astonishment.

Growing Card by Tomoyuki Shimmura: This bizarre piece of strange happens in full view. A card visibly squishes out of shape as it slowly stretches and grows to twice its size in full view. Beautifully performed and taught by Robert Smith.

Chapter 3:

Casanova Inc: Steve Haynes contributes two streamlined elegant handlings of his break through Casanova Concept with business cards.

Half Moon Trading Company: Paul has devised a brand new principle that is guaranteed to expand your mind using a normal card case and a borrowed imagination.

Half Moon Voodoo: A new re-wired version of Guy Hollingsworth's Voodoo Card that ups the happy and glad quotient. You can show the deck freely before the start of the trick.

Pack of Lies: A brand new look at the PH Vanishing Deck. Bro's knock-out handling will forever change how we vanish our decks.

Solid with Happy Ending: Paul's completely new method for the classic Solid Deception with a brand new happy ending.

Chapter 4:

Dr. Fun: After over forty attempts Paul finally nailed this biggie that has all the impact of Deep Astonishment and The Anything Deck, except you can use ANY deck. Imagine the emotional impact when you are able to predict the happiest moment of someone's life!

Name Dropper: A spectator is able to mysteriously and visually print her own name.

Lubor's Lens: This is the definitive work on Reality Twister. For everyone out there who just couldn't figure out the right presentation for this, the wait is over. Along with a brand new presentation, you get your very own Lubor's Lens included with the set.

Naked Strange: Paul's immaculate gimmickless, impromptu version of Strange Travelers. Simple, powerful and true.

Gerard's Warp: Andrew Gerard adds a new psychological twist and turn to Card Warp that left Paul and Bro speechless. Andrew warped their minds so thoroughly, they had to go back to the tape and re-examine what they thought had happened.

Chapter 5:

Transcendental Bar Bet: This is the PH completely hands off, in your face (and on the table), card vanish. Oh yeah, the deck is completely normal and you never touch it during the vanish. The spectator actually vanishes the card herself.

Extraordinary Proof: Andrew Gerard is back with a self-working masterpiece that leaves you holding your favorite spectator's hand. All you have to do is show up and deal.

Tensegrity: Patrick Snowden's strange improbably balanced card sculptures have been pumped up to a new gravity-defying level. Can be done anywhere, surrounded, etc. A true piece of strange that leaves you dangling from the crumbling edge.

Reswindled: PH's hand picked choice as the definitive version of Paul's original Reset. Caleb Wiles has come up with the real work. The two piles never touch and he's added an astonishing new big finish!

Chapter 6:

Smoking Eye: This beautiful feature PH creation with a couple of signed examined matches was inspired by Paul's kid sister Janet when, after surgery, wisps of smoke began coming out of her eyeball.

The Weirdling: Michael Weber has taken a stack of those coffee cards you get at your favorite local java joint and flipped them inside out. Comes with your own special coffee cards.

Ripped and Fried: Charlie Frye has come up with the most incredible Torn And Restored Technology to date! Whether you play with this in the mirror or on the town, you will love doing this!

Cellmates: Meet your soulmate! She gets your number, you get hers. Cellmates is Paul's no-pressure romance inducer with a no-worry ending that puts the odds in your favor.

Chapter 7:

Water Trap: Bro Gilbert's unimaginably cool new approach to Doug Bennett's signed-coin-in-matchbook plot. A genuine breakthrough new method that allows you to improv the prep with a normal matchbook in ten seconds!

Dunn's Deal: Shaun Dunn presents his version of Galaxy. This time, the spectator is shuffling her whole way through the entire effect. Just when they think it's all over... you tell her to shuffle again.

Invisible Palm by Wayne Houchin: You've seen the video of Wayne performing this for years, now learn all the finesse and handling he's brought to this PH classic.

Truly Screwed: This is the new and improved Improv Screwed Deck. Incredibly visual and a treat for your fingers. And the really screwy thing here, is the worse you do the key move here the better it looks.

Chapter 8:

Belly Button: This is Paul's unbelievable brainstorm for doing card through window with a campaign-type button.. using the spectator's own shirt as the window!

SOS: Paul's new version of Color Stunner is more streamlined, simplified and simply a better more joyous thing.

Muscle Bend: A borrowed coin bend that starts and ends with empty hands. Involves a mystery "organic ungimmicked gimmick" that will change the way you bend coins forever.

Unstable Label: Andrew Gerard's "Label to Inside of Bottle" with no palming or gimmicks. Perform with a normal bottle in a moment's notice.

Chapter 9:

If you thought this is all enough to keep you busy for a couple of years, you'd be right. But there is one last final thing on DVD 9: Paul's very own Angel Cake.

Angel Cake is...a slightly troubling once-in-a-lifetime principle. This slice of PH cake will give you some sleepless nights contemplating the philosophical implications of this karmically loaded astonishment.

Angel Cake is...a brand new theory in bill changes that allows you to....well, you'll just have to find out for yourself.
