ROULETTE by Magie Climax

ROULETTE: A modern routine that plays with your spectator's nerves!

Nowadays, mobile phones contain all our secrets. They are part of us; they share our privacy!

Let's imagine a game, a game of luck: A spectator's mobile phone is placed in a bag. This bag is mixed with 5 others, each containing a plate of the dimension of mobile phones. These bags are placed on two holders.

Then, a die is rolled, and each bag is eliminated, violently!

At the end, the remaining bag contains a phone -- the spectator's phone!

Very easy to stage
