Skymember Presents Daily Life (Standard Edition) by Austin Ho and The One - Pokerdeck

"Colors are the string of time that string together our day-to-day life. From deep blue sadness that envelops our wounded heart, to vibrant red that lifts our lips to a heart-warming smile.

So hold within your hands the deck of Daily Life Playing Cards, which therewith lingers your warmth, and dance with a splash of colors with your cardistry.

This is my Daily Life.

Which may fraught with hardship and distress. But there are also moments that abound with glittering joy.

Beneath the prideful heart that is the King's, lies a humble adoration for his beloved Queen, and a modest pursuit for their collection of swords.

And beyond the nurturing elegance of the Queen, dwells a ravenous hunger to possess everything beautiful.

The Jack too, albeit looking ordinary and loyal as a servant, shoulders upon himself a lifelong dream as a celebrated poet, for which he composes every day.

What about your Daily Life?"

- Austin Ho

Features of the Daily Life Playing Cards:

- Printed in classic stock by United States Playing Cards Company.
- The designs are fully customized for every card.
