
Self-Flipping Notepad (DVD and Gimmick) by Victor Sanz - DVD

A mentalism effect combined with a very visual and ghostly display!

Mind-reading routines are as old as magic itself. While there is no need to fix something that isn't broken, you can always push boundaries. That is exactly what Victor Sanz has done with his very own variation of an age-old classic. Introducing the Self-Flipping Notepad!

Have your spectator write down the name of a deceased celebrity on your notepad, and use your mind-reading ability to tell them which person's name they wrote down. The spectator is stunned. Then contact that celebrity from beyond the grave, and get this other-worldly entity to flip through the notepad right to their name! The spectator's jaw will drop - be prepared for screams!

An impactful routine that will make any crowd flip out with awe!

What you get:

- 1 instructional DVD
- 1 gimmick

TV rights not included with purchase. Please contact SansMinds for TV rights.