
Silk to Chocolate (Ferrero Rocher) by Sean Yang

Cleanly show a silk and tuck it into a closed fist. With a gentle blow, the silk has transformed into a gorgeous chocolate!

A new rendition to the classic effect "Silk to Egg!" Replace the egg with the chocolate, making the effect seemingly more impromptu and delicious! To conclude, you can even give out the chocolate as a souvenir at the end of the routine!

Or you can:

Tear up the wrapper to show the chocolate, then give another gentle blow and the wrapper is magically restored!
