Joe Rindfleisch's Legend Bands: Yif Sky Blue Pack

Professional performance rubber bands for the discerning magician. These sky blue bands stand out and help draw attention to you and your magic.

Named after the Legend Yif, these amazing sky blue rubber bands are the very best for performing and showcasing your magic. Each band is coated with Elastraflex which makes the bands stronger and less likely to break during performance. Bands are able to stretch further than normal bands and continue to stay shiny. These bands are smooth to the touch and don't feel like rubber as they slide smoothly against each other. Simply put..... if you do rubber band magic, you need these bands!

This is what legends are made of!

Elastraflex coated, non latex bands, size # 19, ¼ LB

Benefits Include:

1. Bands stretch longer than traditional bands
2. Significantly less chance of bands breaking during performance
3. Bands will show wear slowly so they can be replaced before breaking
4. Bands remain shiny
5. Comes in 6 vibrant colors
