
Jumping Stool

The assistant brings a folding stool out and places it on the stage.

The performer presses on one side of the stool with his leg, and when his leg is withdrawn the stool takes its shape... and jumps about 5-6 feet in the air.

The performer grabs the falling stool and places it on the stage floor.

Included:

Stainless Steel Stool

Special Springs

Cloth Seat Cover