
Chameleon Backs by Vincenzo Di Fatta

Four cards are shown face up.

The magician puts them together in a packet, and as he opens it one card is now face down.

This same move is repeated and each time the following card appears face down while the previous one is face up.

The back changes from blue into red, and in the end each back has a different color.