

Readings as Entertainment by Richard Webster - Buch

How to Make Money Providing Entertaining Readings for the Corporate Market

You can enjoy a lucrative part-time or full-time career as an entertainer who provides brief readings for clients and guests at corporate events. In this book, Richard Webster, who has worked in this market for almost thirty years, shares with you all the secrets he has learned about this little known, uncrowded, and lucrative market.

In READINGS AS ENTERTAINER you'll learn how to give brief, yet insightful readings for the corporate market. You'll also discover:

- the essentials of reading
- the six types of readings you should provide
- how to gain experience at giving quick readings
- how to get started
- how much to charge
- how to start part-time
- how to build up your reading business
- how to create a professional image
- and much more

Richard Webster is the author of more than 90 books, 28 of them for the mentalism market. Richard has enjoyed a varied career, including periods as a mentalist, stage hypnotist, magician, psychic reader, and pitchman. He has appeared on Hard Copy, 20:20, and the Mike and Maty Show. In 2007, the Psychic Entertainer's Association presented him with The Dan Blackwood Award for his "outstanding contribution to the art of Mentalism."

Pages 116 - Softbound