There's magic here for all interest and skill levels and it's all taught in painstaking detail. This is magic that you'll find easy to learn and fun to perform!

Funny Business For Kids' Shows

It's been said that the real work of performing children's magic is what the magician does between the tricks. In this presentation, Patrick Page supplies a multitude of visual gags and bits of business to keep the little ones in hysterics. If you want to be not just a children's magician but a children's entertainer, Patrick Page offers a treasure trove of material here to suit every performer's style and act.
