

Smoke & Mirrors Bannon, DVD

John Bannon is one of the most popular creators of close-up magic. His routines are regularly used by professional and hobbyist magicians. If you don't have a John Bannon routine in your repertoire you are missing out on professional caliber magic that is practical, commercial and fun to perform. After the tremendous success of John Bannon's impossible video and his best selling book Smoke & Mirrors John once again releases some amazing creations. The focus of this program is card magic: from a direct, entertaining and never fails to fail. You will have the most easy-to-perform routines with total precision and high impact.

Routines performed and explained:

- Tables Turn: An easy routine where an initial selected card matches a prediction. The tables are visually transferred to the prediction and it is given as a reward.
- Blackboard: A color assembly where the colors transfer from individual packets and appear in a single packet. As a bonus ending the given change the four suits.
- Cardless Ace Trick: A gambling demonstration where you apparently cheat the roulette. John reveals the cardless ace continually and winning/losing hands to yourself.
- Queen Lends: A routine with a small packet of cards and three of one of them. You intentionally let them what they see thinking of.
- Secret To The Shogun: A card changing demonstration where the face does not obviously look to proceed the other.
- How to handle cards: A the Royal Flush.
- Trick Shot Prediction: A remarkable routine that starts out with a selected card and ends with a surprise prediction.

Plus performances and explanations to: Dealer On Paris, Do The Trick, New Jack City, Timely Departure, Call Of The Wild, Performance and, and Unleashed. Also explained are the many techniques used to accomplish these miracles.
