

American History - Pokerdeck

Embark on a journey through American history with our meticulously crafted deck. Rather than lugging around a bulky 1000+ page book, immerse yourself in multiple decades condensed into one tiny package.

Uncover the richness of American history as you explore 54 exquisitely designed cards, each featuring original illustrations by acclaimed artist Nathaniel Rueda, whose work has graced prestigious venues like The Pictoplasma Academy. Printed to perfection by the renowned United States Playing Cards Company, these cards boast unparalleled quality and durability.

Delve into fascinating tidbits of history with each shuffle. Did you know that the first handheld mobile phone weighed nearly four and a half pounds? Or that Christopher Columbus never set foot on North American soil? And discover intriguing anecdotes, like Johnny Cash's legendary performances in prisons, despite his own run-ins with the law. Beyond mere entertainment, our American History Playing Cards serve as a valuable educational tool, offering a fresh perspective on American history accessible to all, regardless of their familiarity with card games.

Additionally, each deck includes two gaff cards, designed to seamlessly blend historical narratives into your magic routines. Enhance your performances with these captivating additions, enabling you to effortlessly incorporate tales of the past into your magical presentations.

Experience the legacy, lore, and legends of America with every hand dealt.
