

Halidom Deluxe Wooden Box Set by Ark Playing Cards

We aim to capture divine radiance with a lavish golden hue. The overall color scheme of the playing cards exudes an ethereal blend of gold and silver, immersing you in a celestial glow. The meticulous selection of gilded edges resembles a handful of golden sand gently cascading into a sun-kissed river.

Introducing the most esteemed and exclusive version of Halidom, akin to its highly acclaimed wooden box predecessor, this edition features walnut wood material. Designed with a top and bottom structure, the wooden box boasts substantial weight, accentuated by a large metal nameplate on top. Opening the box is like unveiling a profound history steeped in significance. Within the base drawer rests a specially crafted collector's coin, exclusively available in the Halidom series, never to be sold separately but exclusively obtained within this gift box.

Dedicated to the discerning collector with the highest pursuit of excellence in playing cards.
