

Soft Soap "Splash" (with silks)

The performer talks about having inherited three white hankies from his grand grandmother on his father's side. He takes them out of his pocket, and it appears that his young daughter the artist might have used them as sort of drop cloths when doing arts and crafts. The magician takes the three dirty hankies and places them into a soap box. The magician explains that he needed to "wash" them, he shakes the box and out comes three clean hankies!

All the heat is on the box but wait! You rip open the box to show it is completely empty!

Comes with three dirty hanks, clean hanks, and 4 refill boxes. Extra boxes available for purchase separately.

A fun trick all around! Very easy to do.
